

2015 Federal Poverty Level Table

Premium assistance is calculated based on where an individual's annual income falls on the Federal Poverty Level (FPL) table. Below is the FPL scale for 2015 that shows the income limits.

Household Size	100%	133%	200%	275%	300%	400%
1	$11,770	$15,654	$23,540	$32,368	$35,310	$47,080
2	$15,930	$21,187	$31,860	$43,808	$47,790	$63,720
3	$20,090	$26,720	$40,180	$55,248	$60,270	$80,360
4	$24,250	$32,253	$48,500	$66,688	$72,250	$97,000
5	$28,410	$37,785	$56,820	$78,128	$85,230	$113,640

For each additional person add $4,160

The Advanced Premium Tax Credit (APTC) is only available when you purchase insurance through a State or Federal Exchange. You may be eligible for this benefit, based on your income and family size. Tax Credits may be applied to all individual plans except catastrophic plans.
